Yes. Just like in Scientology - it couldn't be a different viewpoint, or something you disagree with. It has to be that I'm an "SP" out to destroy everyone, or a mental defect of some kind because you don't agree with me.

This is just more evidence that Anti-Scientology never helped anyone really evolve and grow from the kindergarten reasoning that dominates Scientology.

It was just Scientology reasoning flipped. Not a true evolution and growth, as can be understood from ~~the~~ ~~level~~ ~~concept~~ ~~of~~ INDIVIDUALISM

My whole life has been about different viewpoints. I have never been a sheep, as you seem to suggest. Soooo, try again. You'll find my weakness, i am certain. Though, we were all being a bit SILLY and good humored about your...posts, i really meant it about personality disorder. If you are not still in, there is something very irrational about you. I tend to believe, you are still a cog. Looks like a duck, quacks like a duck...duck you. Damn, that cracked me up! sigh i do admit finding some enjoyment from you. The way i enjoy untangling a knot. I would enjoy you a teeny bit more, if once in a while, you were a wee more human. Admit you like us. Admit you could be wrong. Admit you are a bit obnoxious. Not necessary, of course. Just a mild wish. Hope you are having a good day, fo' sho'!

HelluvaHoax KNOWS who Allen T Stanfield is - He is Alanzo. Here is what HelluvaHoax says about him:

So the only remaining mystery is WHY Alanzo is trolling:

My e-meter is currently out at Gold to get an updated certification, otherwise I would have been able to find and indicate the right item. Now I know why Ron mandated that we all buy 2 meters.

Anyone with a full charged meter is invited to help null this list down to one blowdown, F/N item that we can then indicate to Alanzo to help him blow his dramatization.

So, let's have at it!

L&N

Why Has Alanzo Become A Troll?

He always was a troll.

He is an attention whore.

The modern science of mental health didn't work on him.

The modern science of mental health did work on him.

He is being paid by Scientology or their proxy.

He is doing this all on his own because he is a sadist who gets pleasure from making others miserable.

He actually thinks he is a brilliant and gifted philosopher that is helping mankind on this planet.

Something to do with the movie "Revenge of the Nerds".

He is using these videos as a way to meet mentally unstable

Indy Scn babes, whom he hopes will see his trolling rants and think to themselves: "Wow, he has so much knowingness and certainty! He's just like Dr. Hubbard, who I had gave a blowjob to in my last life. Yeah, like I totally am ready to hook up again and make a mest-meat-boy-body, so the Commodore can come back and be our son and save mankind! Because, then Alanzo's

YouTube hits will go into screaming power and maybe we can get our own reality TV show and be celebrities!"

I got quite the same thoughts when I read that Marty's blog links to Alanzo's (although I could never ever write it so well , in english, as you do But my french inner speaking was so funny and well said , it was brilliant, funny, enlightening..

Unfortunately, ESMB'ers can't read french)

Anyways, when you are linked by those beautifull enlightened theta thetans flowing such thetanness on earth...you must be proud and use it to promote your enlightening inspiring leadership as a crusader...since when Marty and OSA loves and trust you..it tells a lot!

So, may I assume it gives us now better reason to yell all together, united as a single voice ????

Yes, it IS too bad.

I was hoping you'd also hear the questions addressed to you, like this one:

Why would someone who employs reason spew out an avalanche of lies and logical fallacies, and refuse to answer so many good questions in response to his postings?

Like Alanzo though, you apparently aren't here to engage in an honest discussion.

Please anyone concerned don't act as he did

This is what he wants in proving his narrative of us being fanatic cultists who fair game people.

Keep out of doxxing and any private stuff.

Fight any lie, false assertion, challenge his motives but don't act like him or any other fanatic.

Otherwise you will create more sadness to see he won.

How did I say that the St Louis Director of OSA had a normal family?

By saying that her daughter works for her in the St Louis DSA's office?

By saying that her son, Kevin Forney, despite what was reported on Mike's Blog in Aug of last year, is not "in hiding"?
